

Kapadokya Vocational High School Developing with Contribution of DenizBank:

FULL SUPPORT OF DENİZBANK FOR EDUCATION...

Achieving many projects with the consciousness of social responsibility it has, and well known for its investment in internal and external training and education, DenizBank ranks among supporters of Kapadokya Vocational High School, which is a foundation school established by lovers of Kapadokya.

DenizBank adds physical and cultural value to the school by donating PCs, construction and office furniture and providing internship opportunities to add physical and cultural value to Kapadokya Vocational High School. In addition DenizBank support education by offering training sessions provided by Mr. Tuncay Toprak, Manager of Nevşehir Branch.

Seminars to be held in 2009 within Deniz Academy will add another dimension to the cooperation with Kapadokya Vocational High School.

“Our support will continue also in 2009”

Sharing his assessment on the issue, Mr. Toprak said he was happy to support Kapadokya Vocational High School. He added:

“As DenizBank, we have given training to nearly 70 students up to now, we have donated more than 30 PCs to establish DenizBank PC laboratory in the school, we have provided internship to more than 10 students. We will continue our support in 2009. We think that our contribution adds value to both students and, in an indirect way, to the city of Nevşehir.”
