'Private Sector Debt Instrument Issue Brokerage Leader' Award for DenizYatırım

DenizYatırım was presented the 'Private Sector Debt Instrument Issue Brokerage Leader-2019' award in 'Corporate Financing Transactions' within the scope of TCMA Capital Markets Award which was organized the fifth time this year.

Realizing its activities within DenizBank Investment Services Group and launching major projects in the fields of IPOs, debt instrument issues and mergers and acquisitions, DenizYatırım continues to gain kudos in the prestigious organizations of the sector.

TCMA Capital Markets Awards which was organized the fifth time this year were presented in a ceremony organized on 3 September 2020. DenizYatırım earned the award 'Private Sector Debt Instrument Issue Brokerage Leader-2019' in the category of 'Corporate Financing Transactions' with the power of its distribution channel in debt instrument issues.

"We move forward more strongly towards the future with the motivation given by the awards"

DenizYatırım General Manager Melih Akosman emphasized that the debt instruments which consist of issued financing bill and bonds are being used increasingly by the private sector as an alternative source of fund to the bank loans in the last decade, adding that as DenizYatırım, they are differentiated in the sector as they are the institution using these instrument the most efficiently. Mr Akosman continued: "Powered by the synergy of collecting private banking, fund management and investment activities under a single structure, we have become one of the most efficient institutions in the private sector debt instruments markets as in all the investment services. We are proud of the awards our endeavors earn from the respected platforms of the sector. We will carry on providing services in the same quality under the pandemic conditions with our experienced staff and knowhow in the capital markets."
