

Istanbul State Symphony Orchestra, the corporate sponsorship of which has been assumed by DenizBank for 4 years, opened the 2008-2009 season in Hagia Irene.

DenizBank Concerts kicked off with a wonderful gala

DenizBank, for which it is a principle to realize leading and innovative projects not only in finance but also in culture&arts, took its departure with the slogan of "Yes Art" " reflecting its financial success upon social responsibilities.

Continuing to support cultural and artistic projects, DenizBank has been the corporate sponsor of Istanbul State Symphony Orchestra since 2005.

The opening concert of ISSO took place in Hagia Irene on 17 October 2008. The ISSO conducted by Alexander Rahbari, the worldwide popular Chief welcomed the music lovers and Hüseyin Sermet, pianist and State Artist performed in the concert, as well. Having performed La Valse and Piano Concerto for the Left Hand by Ravel as well as the Şehrazat by Korsakof, the strong team of musicians was highly appreciated by the audience.

ISSO is going to perform 16 concerts under the name of "DenizBank Concerts".