

The privilege of DenizBank whose number of branches climbed up to 312 is continuing to reach every corner of Turkey.

SERİK HAS GOT TO DENİZ, TOO...

DenizBank, whose majority of shares was transferred to Dexia, one of the leading financial institutions in Turkey, is carrying on making people experience the privilege of DenizBank with its new branches.

DenizBank's Serik Branch started its operations as from 17 September 2007 with its large array of products and understanding of service. The Branch, the Manger of which is Taner Ülker, is serving to the inhabitants of Serik with 9 employees in total.

DenizBank, scaling up its success with its 312 branches including those of the subsidiaries, about 7500 employees and 13 subsidiaries including the banks in Europe and Russia, is now offering services with the understanding of "Financial Supermarket" which makes it possible for the customers to meet their every kind of financial need from a single point

Making a statement about the opening of DenizBank Serik Branch, the Branch Manager Taner Ülker said: "DenizBank is maintaining its success story which is shown as aN example in national and international markets. We believe that we will create added value for the lives of customers thanks to our understanding of banking. From now on, the inhabitants of Serik will be able to meet their every kind of banking need from a single point."
