

DenizBank AG purchased the Head Office building in which it provides its services in Vienna

Within the growth plans in Austria, DenizBank AG providing service to a wide range of customers with its long established structuring in Austria and Germany purchased the Head Office building in Vienna in which it has been carrying out its activities since 1996.

The Head Office building purchased by DenizBank AG and including the Head Office units is located in Thomas-Klestik-Platz in Vienna and has an area of use of 5.700m² in Town Town, one of the most important business centers in the city.

Till the end of the year, DenizBank AG, providing service to a wide range of customers with its long established structuring in Austria and Germany, plans to add 10 more branches to its service network consisting of 34 branches in these two countries. With the steps it has taken within this framework, the bank aims to provide a better and more efficient service to its customers by continuing the stable growth in both branches and head office.

Ahmet Mesut Ersoy, CEO of DenizBank AG stated that "Together with our lead in intensive branch opening in 2013 and especially in 2014, the business volume of the units in the Head Office increased. Within the framework of our corporate structuring and in parallel to the sound and stable growth of our bank, we decided to this purchase as per the responsibility we feel towards our employees close to 400 and customers over 160.000."

Town Town business center in which DenizBank AG Head Office is located includes more than 14.000 employees of the companies operating in various sectors and this center has a very important infrastructure advantage with its close position to the city center and airport and its metro connection. The Head Office of DenizBank AG in which smart office systems are applied has the German Consense award of "Sustainable Architecture" with its modern technical equipment.

About DenizBank

DenizBank was established in 1938 as a state economic enterprise aimed at funding of the developing Turkish maritime sector. In the early 1997, DenizBank was acquired by the Zorlu Holding in the form of banking license from the Privatization Administration and in October 2006, a leading European financial group, Dexia incorporated it to its structure. For 6 years, DenizBank operated in Dexia's main shareholding and since 28 September 2012, continues providing services under the umbrella of Russia's largest and well-rooted bank, Sberbank. DenizBank has become one of the remarkable banks of Turkey in a short period of time. DenizBank Financial Services Group was established in 2003 in order to create a "financial supermarket" accumulating various financial services under one roof. There are totally 745 branches within DenizBank Financial Services Group operating in 81 provinces of Turkey and abroad employing close to 15 thousand people. DenizBank Financial Services Group consists of DenizBank, seven domestic, three international financial subsidiaries, five domestic non-financial subsidiaries, and a branch in Bahrain. Deniz Investment Securities, Ekspres Securities, Deniz Real Estate Investment Trust, DenizPortfolio Management, DenizLeasing, DenizFactoring, Destek Asset Management Company, Intertech, Deniz Kültür, Deniz Card Payment Systems, Açık Deniz Radio – TV and Bantaş are the group's domestic subsidiaries while Eurodeniz, DenizBank AG and DenizBank Moscow are its international subsidiaries.

www.denizbank.com, www.facebook.com/DenizBank, twitter.com/DenizBank

About Sberbank

Sberbank of Russia is Russia's largest bank and a leading global financial institution. Sberbank holds almost one third of aggregate Russian banking sector assets, it is the key lender to the national economy and the biggest deposit taker in Russia. The Central Bank of the Russian Federation is the founder and principal shareholder of Sberbank owning 50% of the Bank's authorized capital plus one voting share and other shares are held by domestic and international investors. Sberbank has more than 110 million individual customers and 1 million corporate clients in 20 countries. Sberbank has the largest distribution network in Russia with more than 18,000 branches, and its international operations include UK, US, CIS, Central and Eastern Europe, Turkey and other countries. Sberbank holds the general banking license No.1481 issued by the Bank of Russia. www.sberbank.ru