

Paid military service loan from DenizBank!

DenizBank, with maturity options of up to 60 months, offers a commission-free loan facility with 3 months postponement to military service candidates who would like to take advantage of the paid military service.

Providing innovative solutions in line with customer needs with its financial portal approach, DenizBank, offers military service candidates who will use credit within the scope of paid military service, the opportunity to meet their need with maturity options of up to 60 months, with 3 months postponement and without commission. With paid military service loan of DenizBank, military service candidates will easily meet their needs.

DenizBank Retail Banking Group EVP Gökhan Ertürk, on paid military service loan, stated: "As DenizBank, we started working on paid military service loan. With the law entering into force, we will serve military service candidates with our commission-free loan with postponement campaign."

Free of commission, with 3 months postponement

Ertürk stated: "Military service candidates will be able to use their credits for their cash needs without commission in this new credit facility of DenizBank. We are planning to offer this product with maturity options of up to 60 months and with 3 months postponement so that the debtors would not have difficulty in repayment while they do their military service and after their service ends. To apply, all they have to do is to visit a DenizBank branch."